

NiCE funding fiche: Horizon2020 -

ICT-enabled open government

Call & reference	H2020-INSO-2014 / H2020-INSO-2015 ICT-enabled open government	Deadline	29 April 2014 21 April 2015
Funding programme	Horizon 2020	EC Service	Dg Research and Innovation
Objectives	The actions should address at least one of the sub-objectives: i) Pilots on personalised and mobile public services which will aim to benefit from one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Intelligent and innovative use of large volumes of publicly available data for new, smart and mobile public services; • Using open services and enabling any actors, including users, to create or co-produce new public services; • Pro-active and personalised citizen-centric public service applications; this can be according to a user profile created and controlled by the user and structured around modular public services; • Following changes in user behaviour in accessing and using such services and supporting the organisational and back-office implications, including privacy. ii) Pilots on transparency which will aim to benefit from one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Actions will aim to pilot tools to increase the transparency impact of ICT-based technology platforms of the public sector; • The transparency tools to be piloted will benefit from open data and could help in monitoring, enhancing accountability and fighting corruption (e.g. through data mining and other tools). These innovation actions should include an assessment of the effectiveness as well as social and economic impact of using these approaches to deliver the public administrations' goals. The results of these assessments should also provide feedback into a set of recommendations for future use of these approaches to deliver more effective public administration.

Total budget for this call	2014: € 23.5 million 2015: €9.2 million	Co-financing rate	Innovative actions: : 70% co-financing (except for non-profit legal entities, where a rate of 100% applies)
Further information	Link to the call here . For the 2015 call, please see here . Link to the general annexes here . Link to the legal basis of H2020 (here). Includes “Financial regulation”, with the Rules of eligible cost and the “Rules for participation”.

Please note that while NiCE is doing its best to provide correct and relevant information on EU funding programmes, only the reference documents published by the European Commission are to be considered as valid legal references. NiCE cannot be held responsible for the exploitation by any user of the information provided.